Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 5 – Hampton Court Trip – Friday 28th March 2025

To enhance learning about the Tudors, a trip to Hampton Court Palace has been organised for Year 5. Your child will participate in a workshop, where they will explore lesser-known jobs occupied by children in Tudor times and learn about the stories of courtiers. Through fun activities and historical enquiry, they will compare their own lives to those of Tudor children and discover how history helps us understand the past.

Curriculum impact	Increase knowledge and understanding of Tudor life. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - using the palace as a primary source of information. - explore the notion of hierarchy and status within the Tudor court and how these are reflected in the buildings of the palace. - explore historical enquiry skills, highlighting that architectural features and furnishings can be used to understand rank and status
